Serial No.83 in Notice List No.1-A dated the 15th June 1936.

Mr. M. Ananthasayanam Ayyangar: (a) Has the attention of Government been drawn to an article in the Indian Express, dated the 14th May, 1936, headed "Suppression of immoral traffic in women and children" and the measures taken by the Japanese Government?

(b) What steps are being taken by Government to suppress immoral traffic in women in India with special reference to Delhi and the centrally administered areas?

(c) Was any commission or committee appointed to study the problem in India, and if so, did it submit a report? If not, why not?

(d) Have any attempts been made to give the fallen women any vocational training in music and other fine arts, or for any other occupation, so as to provide them with a decent employment?

(e) Are Government aware that there are whole streets of prostitutes in Delhi city, and why have not measures been introduced on the lines of the Brothels Act, Madras, to check prostitution?
